

HISTORIC PRESERVATION IN JAPAN AND BOSTON

February 24 & 25, 2015 at Harvard University & Boston Children's Museum presented by  The Japan Society of Boston

SPONSORING ORGANIZATIONS

Japan Society of Boston
Reischauer Institute of Japanese Studies, Harvard University
Boston Children's Museum
Toshiba International Foundation

SPEAKERS & PARTICIPANTS

ANN BEHA

Architect, Principal of Ann Beha Architects

AKEMI CHAYAMA

Manager of The Kyoto House & Japan Programs, Boston Children's Museum

FUSAE KOJIMA

Founder/Chairperson: Kyo-Machiya Revitalization Association

YUKIO LIPPIT

Professor of Japanese Art History, Harvard University

DAVID ODO

Director of Student Programs and Research Curator for University Collections Initiatives, Harvard Art Museums

JORGE OTERO-PAILOS

Architect, Professor of Architectural Preservation, Columbia University

YOSHIHIRO TAKISHITA

Architect, Founder/Chairman of Nokoso-kai,
Association for the Preservation of Traditional Japanese Farmhouses

PETER GRILLI

President Emeritus, Japan Society of Boston

SCHEDULE

Subject to change

DAY 1 : Tuesday, February 24, 4:30 pm – 6:30 pm

at Tsai Auditorium, Harvard University
(1730 Cambridge St., Cambridge, MA)

Opening Session

Welcome & Introductions by Peter Grilli
Presentations by Ann Beha and Yoshihiro Takishita

* * * * *

DAY 2 : Wednesday, February 25, 9:00 am – 4:30 pm

at Boston Children's Museum
(308 Congress St., Boston, MA)

Morning Session, 9:00 - 12:00

Presentations by Jorge Otero-Pailos and Fusae Kojima

Japanese Lunch

& Tours of the Kyoto House, 12:00 - 2:00

Afternoon Session, 2:00 - 4:30

Presentations by Yukio Lippit and Akemi Chayama
Panel Discussion with all Symposium participants