

千羽鶴

A Thousand Cranes

September 12, 2011

A Thousand Cranes: An Evening to Benefit

Japanese Disaster Relief Fund BOSTON

September 12, 2011

Boston Ballet Studios, 19 Clarendon Street, Boston
6:30pm Cocktail Reception • 7:30pm Performance
Suggested minimum donation $100 per person
(additional contributions gratefully accepted)

Please join Boston Ballet Principal Dancer Misa Kuranaga for an evening to support the ongoing relief efforts in Japan. A Thousand Cranes, emceed by 7NEWS Janet Wu, will feature special performances by Boston Ballet Company dancers.

All proceeds will benefit the Japanese Disaster Relief Fund Boston. The Fund was established in the aftermath of the March 11 earthquake and tsunami that devastated northeastern Japan and severely damaged the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear reactor. More than 80,000 survivors and evacuees continue to live in temporary shelters in the wake of this tragedy.

RSVP by September 7 at thousandcranes.eventbrite.com

*Due to limited space, early RSVP strongly recommended

For information only, contact:

Eula Lee, elee@bostonballet.org or Elly Brown, info.jdrfb@gmail.com

BOSTONBALLET
MIKKO NISSINEN ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

tBf The Boston
Foundation
INNOVATION. INFORMATION. IMPACT.

THE FISH
FAMILY
FOUNDATION

協日
会本
JAPAN SOCIETY
OF BOSTON